DIZZY MOTORIST SAVED BY CAPSULE

Dangerous Stomach Gas Relieved by Jacques' Little Wonder Capsules

Many motorists know what a harrowing experience it is to have a sudden attack of dizziness, brought on by indigestion. Everything goes black, control of the car is lost and unless driving is stopped until relief can be had a dangerous accident may follow.

F. M. Foster, of Dorchester, Mass., tells how a motoring friend overcame this trouble. He writes: "The Little Wonder Capsules relieved and they have been doing wonders not only in my family but with a couple of friends, one of them, who had to stop his car in front of a house, and I have never found anything else so effective."

If you suffer from dyspepsia, indigestion or constipation get this quick relief today.

THOUSANDS OF MEN AND WOMEN ARE BEING DECEIVED

By being persuaded to take a substitute for Vinol. Your physician will tell you that there is no better strength creator or body builder known to medicine than the combination of tonics contained in Vinol, which are plainly printed on the label and contain among other things the curative elements of old fashioned Cod Liver Oil (without oil).—Vesicle Iron—Beech's Peppermint—and Glucose-phosphates.

Therefore, why will weak, nervous people, feeble old people, mothers of delicate children, and convalescents be fooled by the extravagant claims made for some medicine, when this standard remedy is guaranteed to restore strength and build you up or it costs you nothing, and you know what you are taking?

For many years Vinol has been sold in this city and you undoubtedly know many who have been helped by its use. Surely you take no chances in trying Vinol because you know what you are taking and can get your money back if it fails to benefit you.

ANOTHER CLASH IN STRIKE-BOUND CITY

Numerous Shots Fired in Fight Between Kentucky State Troopers and Strikers

Newport, Ky., Feb. 7. — Another series of clashes between Kentucky state troopers and strikers and their sympathizers, growing out of the labor disorders at the plants of the Newport rolling mills, occurred on the streets here Sunday. Numerous shots were fired, but so far as could be learned, no one was wounded. Several persons, however, were said to have been beaten.

While none of the clashes was as serious as those on the preceding day, when two men were shot and at least a score of others were beaten, including both union and non-union men, the strikers troops were called on to repulse two attacks against their ranks and one against a truck. Several members of the attacking parties were arrested.

Among those arrested was Jack Niemeyer, former president of local 15 of the strikers' union. Niemeyer, with several others, was arrested when the soldiers rushed a mob which had attacked a truck, guarded by the troops, conveying mill employees from the plant. He is being held on suspicion.

JERSEY CATTLE RAISER.
Lowell, Mass., Feb. 6. — Charles I. Hood, widely known as a wholesaler of proprietary medicines and prominent in the business of raising Jersey cattle, died at his home here Sunday. He was born in Chelsea, Vt., in 1846 and came to Lowell in 1861.

RICH MANUFACTURER ENDS LIFE.
St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 5. — The body of Charles Parker, wealthy retired glove manufacturer, formerly of New York, was found hanging from a rope tied to a taffer in a storage house attached to his dwelling. He had been dead several hours.

DRIVE ON SHORTS LOSES ITS FORCE

Speculative Favorites Used by Bull Pools to Dislodge the Bears

New York, Feb. 6. — The drive against the short interests in the stock market was vigorously resumed at the outset of trading but lost some of its force later in the absence of more than a moderate public following.

Speculative favorites of the equipment, motor, oil, shipping and food divisions were used by bull pools to dislodge the bears, as were textiles, tobacco and chemicals. Halls of the cheaper grade supplemented the irregular advance.

Steads were unaffected by contradictory rumors regarding the progress of the proposed merger of the independent companies, but Cleveland Peabody, which recently emerged from obscurity, broke sharply as a result of its poor earnings.

Mixed conditions prevailed in the oil trade, as was indicated by a one-cent advance in Indiana Gasoline and a two-cent cut for the same product in New England.

Development of a general character mainly favored the constructive side, as did also the tone of the money markets and foreign exchanges. Western centers reported a better investment inquiry and further gains in railroad tonnage, due largely to increased grain exports.

Heavy accessions to local reserves of interior banks soon forced the opening rate of call loans down from 5% to 3 per cent on the exchange and to 4 1/2 per cent in private offerings. Time funds were unaltered, however, five per cent being demanded for long-term maturities.

Liberty bonds recorded further recessions in connection with Washington advice respecting soldier bonus legislation. Aside from the strength shown by various junior railroad bonds, interest in that market centered around the successful flotation of the new Great Northern railway issue.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any drugstore, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. You prefer the clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract known to medical science for its healing effect on membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions on the label. Accept nothing else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. William Plue of Warnerville was taken into custody last week on a John Doe warrant by State Troopers King and Burgess and taken to Richmondville by Detective Brown of the D. & E. police force in connection with the investigation held relative to the two visits to the D. & E. station at Richmondville by burglars, one on the previous Friday night and the second on the Sunday night following.

Plue was able to give an account of himself on the two nights in question and was not held. Thus far no trace has been found of the burglars. They secured no booty of any value. It is expected that the case will be followed however, until the culprit is caught.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Freight Business on the Boom — D. L. & W. Denies Rumor.

A large increase in the volume of freight traffic is being experienced by the Lackawanna railroad according to Superintendent Frank Cizek of the Utica and Syracuse division. In his judgment industrial and commercial affairs are on the way back to normal conditions. Proportionate increase in traffic is reported from the Erie and the N. Y.

New York has heard that the Lackawanna management is about to let a $2,000,000 contract for the electrification of the main line between Hoboken and Buffalo. The management denies that anything of the kind is contemplated at present.

DO NOT NEGLECT COLDS

Not Serious in Themselves, But W. Check Condition Makes Susceptible to Disease.

Although not dangerous of themselves, colds should not be neglected. Health authorities, who point out that the weakened condition of body and the inflamed condition of the mucous membranes leaves an open door for the more serious infection pneumonia, mastoiditis, tubercular and the like.

Preventive Measures.

Isolation of the person who has the cold, as far as possible, from the use of the handkerchief, the use of a separate towel and drinking and refraining from kissing, or blowing or coughing in the face of others, will do much to prevent spread of colds. Special care should be taken that the family dishes washed in hot soapy water and put in scalding water when any one of the family has a cold. The dishes should be boiled at least 10 daily.

Proper Diet Helps.

A soft, light diet with little or no fat, plenty of fruits and vegetables and an abundance of drinking water will help the body throw off the effects of a cold, say food specialists at the state college at Ithaca. There is nothing better for the patient in the neighborhood at large than the person with a cold to remain quietly in bed for a day or two. The cold then soon disappears and leaves no bad effects. More important, an epidemic of colds may have been prevented.

Judge Roy's Birthday.

Friday of last week was the 75th birthday of Federal Judge George W. Roy of Norwich.

Many friends remembered the birthday with messages of congratulation, flowers and good wishes. The observance of the day was informal but brought added pleasure to the distinguished jurist.

Judge Roy still conducts hearings at his office. No later than this week he heard the matter of the defunct Jones Oil Engine company of Syracuse. The sale of the property and franchise of the concern to a new company now being perfected was confirmed and the terms of payment fixed. A brilliant array of legal talent appeared in the case and after the several attorneys had asked for their allowances the hearing was further adjourned until Thursday, Feb. 16.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS presents

The THREE MUSKETEERS

Adapted, Containing Research under Edward Knobloch Direction under Fred Niblo

This newest of "Douglas" productions, this most enchanting of all Dumas vivid stories, this marvelous visualization of "The Three Musketeers" is truly a picture for everyone—for your family, and every family. From it, the young can learn frankness, kindness, valor and generosity. The old can find forgetfulness of trouble and taste its antidote for sorrow. And all of us who believe in life's drama, with its chapters of gaiety and wit, owe to Dumas a debt of gratitude.

NEW YORK STATE CROPS.

Although late, the phenomenal crop of this state, was badly hurt by the unfavorable weather of last spring, the farmers of New York fared better during 1921 than those in most other states of the country. According to John B. Shepard of the U. S. Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, prices of New York products have not dropped as rapidly as the prices of crops in the middle west, so that the total value of all crops of our state ranked fourth, being exceeded only by Texas, California and Illinois. In the production of hay New York was second to California and in the production of potatoes this state was exceeded by Maine, but in such cases the higher prices prevailing here caused this state to lead in the value of the crops. The state was also first in the production of onions and cabbage, second to Wisconsin in the value of dairy products, second to Washington in apples and to Pennsylvania in peaches. This state was also third in beans and pears and fourth in peaches.

The remarkable showing of New York farms this season is best realized by comparing with some of the productive regions of the middle west. Thus the 8,000,000 acres of crops in this state were worth more than the 20,000,000 acres in Iowa, although the latter total included 17,000,000 acres of corn and the crop was good. In this state the gross value of the crops produced in 1921 was 15.7 per cent of the value of the farm lands and buildings on the first of the year. The average farm was worth only 3.7 per cent of the value of the land and buildings. For the United States as a whole the average was 10.5 per cent.

As a further indication that the farmers of this state have felt the depression less than have those of the middle west, the recently issued report on the wages of farm laborers is of particular interest. In this state in 1920 the average farm hand received his board and a little over $54 in cash. In 1921 the average was $40 per month and board. In the north-central group of states, west of the Mississippi river, farm wages in 1920 were about $5 higher than they were in New York state, but in 1921 they averaged $5 below the average of wages here. During 1921 the wages of farm workers hired by the month with board averaged higher in New York than anywhere else in the country except in parts of New England, North Dakota and the far western states. Except during the harvest season, wages by the day with board were higher here than in any other state except Rhode Island, North Dakota and California. In New York and New England farm wages during 1921 were very nearly the same as they were in 1918. Elsewhere they were below the 1918 level but higher than in 1917.

THE NEW PONTIFF.

The election of Achille Ratti, cardinal-archbishop of Milan, to the papal chair as 281st in succession from St. Peter, who was the first of the Roman hierarchy is named as first Bishop of Rome, was in some senses a surprise even to those who most closely had watched the course of events and had believed themselves most conversant with the politics of the Vatican. Cardinal Merry del Val was the candidate of many of the more conservative among those having vote in the college of cardinals; he was by birth a Spaniard and this perhaps centered against him both those who believed that, following a precedent of centuries, an Italian should be elected, and those who were of liberal tendencies. Cardinal Laurienti, who was elected to the papacy before the death of Benedict as his possible successor, is one of the youngest of the wearers of the red hat, being only 49 years old, and this fact may have had its influence on the vote. Cardinal Gasparri was so openly a liberal that it was apparently impossible for him to secure a majority vote, and in the end the choice fell on Ratti, who will assume the chair of the pontiff under the name of Pius XI.

The choice of Cardinal Ratti is generally approved as fortunate. While not in any sense a conservative, he is not a progressive in the full sense in which that term has been applied to Gasparri; but he is known to be long to that faction, if faction it can be called and it is believed will stand for reconciliation between the Italian government and the Vatican—a thing which is very generally desired. Following the precedent of years, by which a "religious" pope has always been followed by a "political" one, Pius XI. is already designated "religious"; yet it was only the accident of war which thrust Benedict into prominence in the "political" sense. The elevation of Cardinal Ratti is believed in every way to be a happy one. He has great executive ability with thorough knowledge of social and political problems, and is perhaps the best choice which could be made among a somewhat limited circle for a high position to which he has been raised.

The Constitution.

The fathers would not be able to understand the notion that the Constitution today is the same Constitution which they wrote. They would marvel at what the President's office has become; they would be amazed at how congressional government works; they would not know at first what to make of the party system; they would not have imagined the development of the modern newspaper. But most of all they would be surprised at those who continue to believe that a system of government which has grown and changed so radically is a fixed and immutable system of government.

PRESS AND PUBLIC OPINION

City Zoning and Planning System.
City zoning and planning have been adopted by New York, Rochester, Yonkers, Troy, Gloversville and White Plains and are being considered in many cities, including Albany, Poughkeepsie and Kingston. Under city zoning and planning, the town is developed under a fixed system. The municipality points the way to larger development. There are certain restrictions on building in order that property may not be used to decrease in value through the erection of undesirable structures. Under the system, it is pointed out, it is possible to calculate the amount and character of possible growth in each city block, determine the character of paving, curbing and grading; the size of sewer, water and gas mains; and the location and size of firehouses, playgrounds and other public improvements, instead of having to provide for these haphazard as the town develops. (Newburgh News.)

Senator Kenyon's New Place.

There is more than a possibility that the Senate's rapid confirmation of the appointment of Senator Kenyon as a federal judge was accelerated by the fact that he is head of the farm bloc, for as it may, it is a fact that Senator Kenyon has long desired a judicial position. Active political life has been in a way distasteful to him, as it has to many of the farm bloc. That and as it is distasteful to Governor Miller, President Harding, a Senate colleague, knew this and months ago tendered the appointment of circuit judge of the Iowa. At that time he rejected it because of pressure brought to bear by friends. But now he has decided to accept, since it means a life job at congenial work. In all probability the opportunity would never again be offered. (Waterbury Standard.)

The Shantung Agreement.

The fact will remain that the agreement is precisely the kind of agreement by which progress is likely to be made in this imperfect world. It is a compromise, but most such compromises are. It depends upon the fact that good faith of Japan, but all treaties rest upon that same foundation of assumed good faith. Even were there doubt on that score, the wisest thing would be to take good faith, granted, rather than to sow suspicion and discord.

For progress toward peace rests on mutual good will and confidence, and can never thrive on any other basis. The discovery of international friendship and good will will halt the Shantung settlement as a step in the right direction and not a small one. (Rochester Times-Union.)

Our Foreign Policy.

The American people have learned much from the events of 1921. They are ready to go forward. It is time for the President to lead them forward.

There will, no doubt, be opposition in the Senate. But if Mr. Harding waits for the education of the Johnsons and the Brandegeses he will wait all the clock of doom. The time has come for action. The American people are ready. Let us hope Mr. Harding is ready and that he will exercise his presidential prerogative, and control and form the foreign policy of the nation? (Rochester Times-Union.)

Hardly That.

Down in Texas the short cotton crop forced a large number of country negroes to the cities. One of these applied for a job at one of the large employment agencies. "There's a job open at the Eagle Laundry," said the man behind the desk. "Want it?" The applicant shifted uneasily from one foot to the other. "Tell you how it is, boss," he said finally. "I sure does want a job mighty bad, but de fact is, I ain't never washed a eagle." (Judge.)

Lines Leading to Success.

Issues and candidates for 1921 will emerge from the roll of events as they progress. No one now can foresee what they will be. But, having had one "sovereign referendum" on the league of Nations, our own present inclination is not to invite another. Nor do we believe that talk of party depression or party prosperity will achieve anything worth striving for. Success must be sought along other lines. (Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

The Auto Toll.

One person was killed every 35 minutes in auto accidents during 1921. The total for the year "probably" was as high as 15,000. This is the estimate of the National Safety Council. Considerable toll for carelessness, which is just another word for recklessness! For practically every auto accident is preventable. Facts that on your workfield, if inclined to take chances. (Haverhill Gazette.)

The Standard Excitement.

Auto bandit stories have again crowded the syndicate-infested water reports of the first page of the New York papers. (Syracuse Post-Standard.)

RURAL CARRIER JOBS.

Principle of Local Residents for Local Postal Service Affirmed.

Washington, Feb. 6. — The principle of the local resident for the local job is further carried out by ruling of the Civil Service commission today. Hereafter, the commission states, only persons who have their residence within the delivery of the office in which the vacancy exists will be considered for rural carrier appointments. Heretofore certification has been made of eligibles residing within the delivery of any office in the entire country in which the vacancy office is situated. The new procedure places applicants for rural carrier appointments on the same basis as applicants for postmaster appointments, so far as the matter of residence is concerned. The Civil Service commission states that this change has been made after due consideration and meets with the approval of the Post Office department.

Who Gets the Operator's Goat?
It is the "rough" certainly not, he's a damned good fellow only life doesn't go quite fast enough for him, therefore he sprinkles the spice. Perhaps it's the spooner? I'll say it's not for as over all the world loves the lovers. Neither is it the business men. They are a joy with their straight, clean-cut deals that get them somewhere. What then?

Each morning the operator goes on duty full of hope and with sunshine in her voice. It is her duty to stay on the line to find if the number answers and if the connection is clear. This is what she hears nine calls out of ten: "How are you?" In a pitious, heart-rending voice, the answer comes: "Oh, I feel so bad." "My head hurts." "I've got a cold." "My corns hurt." "I didn't sleep." etc., or similar all day long. Poor sympathetic little operator, life loses its joy and hope then. When quitting-time comes, she is a bundle of nerves and she misses the goat. Why inflict your pains on your friends? They have enough of their own. Try cheering them up instead. Talk about something worth while. Eskimo pies for instance—even that operator will last longer. NEW THEATRE LOBBY OPENED

Manager Moore Surprises Patrons—Last Evening—Work Can Now Be Started on Refraining and Smoking Rooms.

Manager Ed. A. Moore of the Oneonta theatre surprised his patrons last evening when, just before the opening performance, he had removed the board covering the entrance to the new lobby and permitted the crowd to use the entrance for the first time. Many were the favorable comments overheard concerning the size and convenience of the entrance and lobby.

Although the decorating remains to be done, a good idea of how the lobby will look when completed can be obtained. Wider and deeper than the old lobby and affording a direct entrance into the theatre, the lobby is constructed so that crowds can be handled much more quickly and with less inconvenience to patrons. Separate entrance and exit doors are provided and provisions will be made so that there will be no jostling of incoming and outgoing throngs. When completed the entrance will be fronted by an attractive arch and by a canopy extending over the sidewalk to the street.

The opening of the new entrance makes it possible to commence work on the ladies' and men's retiring rooms and on the new Derick store. The ladies' room will be located in a building to be erected in the alleyway to the left of the theatre and entrance thereto will be made directly from the auditorium. The gentlemen's smoking and retiring room will be in back of the Derick store. The decorations in the auditorium have been practically completed, but a few features remain to be added.

Cobleskill Buys Linn Tractor.

Herbert Sweet, superintendent of highways in Cobleskill, went to Morris last week where he purchased a Linn tractor for road work for $5,900. The transaction was financed by 10 men of the town and will not cause any raise in the tax rate. The town will pay $20 per day for each day the machine is in use and considering the power of the machine this is considered cheaper than to hire horses. Thus the machine will pay for itself. The tractor arrived at Cobleskill Friday.

SUBWAY UNDER TRACKS

OPPOSITE D. & H. STATION FOR PEDESTRIANS ONLY SUGGESTED.

As Possible Solution of Problem of Gas House Crossing—Amendments to City Charter Proposed Giving Official Authority Over New Streets and Street Building Lines.

During the discussion of the vexatious problem of providing a suitable crossing of the D. & H. tracks and the mill race from the business section to the ball grounds and Nehalem park, at the meeting of the Board of Public Works last evening, Chairman Hoyt said that the D. & H. company engineers are considering plans for an underground foot passage opposite the station under the D. & H. tracks with the idea in mind that a foot bridge could be provided at that point over the mill race and thus obviate the use of the crossing at the gas works by pedestrians at least. This suggestion, Mr. Hoyt suggested, that a small bridge capable of carrying light loads of about over three or five ton capacity leading to the gas works, replacing the bridge now condemned, could then be provided, with the street marked private way, and the danger to human life at the crossing would be reduced to a minimum.

It is the contention of Mr. Hoyt that the construction of a new bridge capable of carrying all traffic such as would be required if a permanent street is located there would require a large outlay, with a capacity of at least 15 tons, and there would be the constant menace to life if pedestrians use the street during the summer months. Mr. Hoyt said that no definite word has been given by the D. & H. company relative to its attitude on the subway for pedestrians only and that no decision can be reached until the company determines what it is willing to do in the matter. It had been suggested by some of the company officials that an overhead bridge for pedestrians only be constructed. Mr. Hoyt said, but he expressed a fear that this would not remove the menace to life, as but few would use the bridge which would require stairs on both sides. The subject was left before the board for future consideration.

Engineer Potts Delayed.

Clyde Potts, the consulting engineer who was expected to be present was delayed at Wilkes-Barre and was unable to reach Oneonta yesterday. He wired that he would arrive this morning and after a consultation with Engineer Gurney and Attorney Becker will meet with the commissioners this afternoon to canvass the situation relative to the creeks flowing through the city, it is believed.

During the meeting a resolution was passed which requests the common council to cause to be prepared an amendment to the city charter which will make provision for the care of these creeks after the plan finally adopted and forward the same to the state legislature with the request that it be enacted. The exact nature of the amendment cannot be determined until after Mr. Potts has made his report and the proper course to pursue has been agreed upon. It is hoped that the matter can be settled today and the measure completed at an early date and forwarded to Albany.

Power to Regulate.

City Engineer Gurney called the attention of the commissioners to the fact that many streets have been laid out improperly and with no consideration of the rights of the public in the past and that after houses had been erected thereon, the city is asked to accept them. He suggested the wisdom of an amendment to the charter which would give the city authorities power to adopt measures which will prevent the laying out or opening of any street within the city limits until the plans for the same have been submitted to the city engineer and the board of public works and been approved by them.

It was further suggested that for the future of the city power be conferred upon city authorities to establish building lines upon all streets of the city, limiting the front walls of all buildings to be afterward erected to a certain distance from the street line.

After the subjects presented had been discussed a resolution was passed requesting the common council to submit to the legislature an amendment to the city charter embracing these suggestions and request its passage by that body. The resolution will be presented to the common council at an early meeting.

Bids for Material Opened.

Bids which had been previously asked for were submitted for material for a cement, crushed stone paving, bit, oil for street oiling, an asphalt binder for street construction. L. P. Butts, Briggs Lumber company, Standard Oil company of New York city and United States Asphaltum company and the Harner asphalt company.

owing to the inability of the common council to determine relative to the until they have been carefully reviewed by the city engineer, it was postponed, at which Engineer Gurney will report upon them. Pot butts and Butts concerns a bid of $2.25 for Pot butts, $1.00 for crushed stone was $1.00 per ton.

Delayed in Snow Drifts.

During the meeting a telegram was received from George J. Clute who was delayed in snow drifts and was unable to reach the meeting at the last possible hour. He was, however, unable to reach the city before the meeting adjourned.

ANNUAL MEETING FRIDAY

Chamber of Commerce Will Meet House of Education of Directors at Meeting in Municipal Hall Friday Night—Address by Bradley Fuller of Albany's League Co-operative Association Will be a Feature.

Oneonta Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual meeting on Friday evening of this week in Municipal hall, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting assumes added importance because, in addition to the brief reports on the past year's activities by President Owen C. Becker, Treasurer Ralph W. Henderson, and Secretary Bradley Fuller, the members present will be asked to write down their suggestions for Chamber of Commerce activities in 1922, from which the new program of work will be drafted to carry on the organization's efforts along definite lines.

As a feature at the meeting, Bradley Fuller, ex-officio, attorney for the Albany's League Co-operative Association, has been asked to give an address on the League's pooling plan, in order to acquaint Oneontans with the aims of this co-operative scheme and the workings of the organization. This talk was listed on the program at the specific request of officers of the Otsego County Farm Bureau and Improvement association, who feel that the citizens of this city should become more familiar with the plan which has enlisted support from a large number of farmers of the county.

Announcement of the result of the final election of seven directors to the Chamber's board will be made at the meeting by Chairman Carl A. Smith of the Election Committee. Although the poll close Thursday evening, the names of the nominees elected will not be made known until the annual meeting, and members of the committee will all be pledged to secrecy after the certified count of the ballots has been completed.

More than 150 ballots in the final election of the Chamber of Commerce were received yesterday, indicating that with the votes which will probably be cast the next three days, the number of members who will participate in this election will be the largest in the organization's history. The 14 candidates for the directorate nominated by the primary election are:

Roscoe C. Briggs, R. E. Brigham, A. E. Ceperley, Edward Crippen, A. W. Cutler, W. T. Eggleston, Leslie Gardner, Herbert C. Getman, F. H. Marx, C. R. McCarthy, C. C. Miller, Frank G. Sherman, C. J. Van Dusen, and Ralph S. Wyckoff.

CHANGE IN M'CARTHY STORE

W. Arthur Holley Purchases Interest of B. H. Lambert in Clothing Store of C. R. McCarthy Company—Will Take Active Interest After March 1.

W. Arthur Holley, assistant cashier at the Citizens' National bank and one of the best known young men in the city, has purchased the stock of C. R. McCarthy company, Inc. and from March 1 will assume an active interest in that progressive clothing business. The deal was closed yesterday, but Mr. Holley, although he has tendered his resignation, will not relinquish his duties at the bank until about March 1.

The C. R. McCarthy company was incorporated two years ago, with Charles R. McCarthy and B. H. Lambert, proprietor of a clothing store in Cobleskill, holding each a half of the capital stock. The store at 145 Main street is one of the most attractive and best appointed retail establishments in the city and has always enjoyed an excellent patronage and an enviable reputation for selling high grade gentlemen's furnishings at reasonable prices.

Mr. Holley, who will be active in the management of the business, has been with the Citizens' bank for the past three years, working himself up to the position of assistant cashier and proving himself such a valuable man that the bank officials were loathe to accept his resignation. Prior to his connection with the bank Mr. Holley was deputy county clerk for several years and his work at Cooperstown made him well known to many in the county. He has been secretary of the Oneonta lodge of Elks for several years and has also been active in many other civic activities. That he is to be associated with the McCarthy company is an indication that the concern will be even more successful in the future than it has been in the past.

Members McCarthy and Holley have announced that the business will be conducted along the same lines as in the past and that the endeavor will be maintained to render efficient service and sell only quality merchandise.

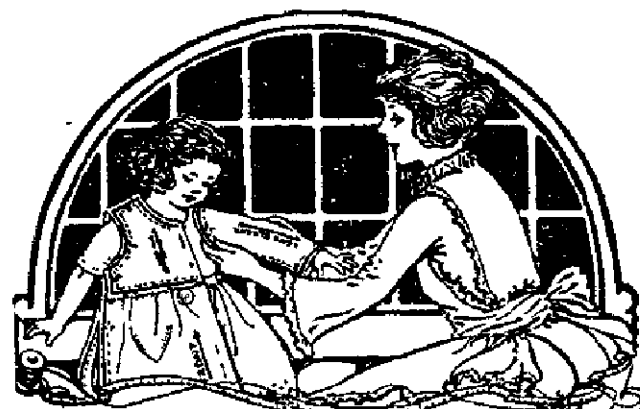

Pied Piper Pageant Postponed.

The production of the spectacular pageant, "The Pied Piper of Hamelin," which was to have been presented under the auspices of the Oneonta Community association at the Oneonta theatre on February 27 and 28 by 500 residents of the city, has been postponed until March 17 and 18 because of an injury to J. G. Hoffman, who directs the rehearsals for the New York Operatic Entertainment bureau. A letter received by officials of the association from Mr. Hoffman states that he is still suffering from the effects of injuries sustained in an automobile accident early in January and will be unable to come to Oneonta this week when rehearsals were to have started.

LOCAL MENTION

—There were 27 births and 22 deaths in the city during the month of January according to the records in the city clerk's office.

—Attorney James P. Friery of Schenectady was in the city yesterday driving a new 60 horse-power Scipps sedan which he purchased recently of Charles Hubbard, local dealer.

—William Florence, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Weller Pierce of Oak street, was operated on Friday at the Fox Memorial hospital for mastoiditis. The operation was a success and he is improving rapidly.

—Edward M. Simon, acting sub-district officer of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau, will be at the Red Cross home service office in the City House this afternoon to interview ex-service men interested in government vocational training.

—The Oneonta club smoker scheduled for Wednesday evening has been postponed until Thursday evening, the entertainment committee having been assured that the alterations will be completed by that time. The next dance will be held on Friday evening, February 24.

—The Chestnut Street school, closed since the fire on November 20, reopened for regular work yesterday morning. Much gratification was expressed by teachers and pupils alike at the attractive appearance of the interior and at the many improvements installed during the remodeling.

—Plans have been completed for a get-together dinner of the Boosters to be held at the Y. M. C. A. on next Monday evening at 6:15 o'clock. An address by Mayor C. C. Miller will feature the meeting, at which plans for future work will be discussed. Jerry Wilson will lead in community singing.

—At the meeting of the board of directors of the Oneonta Country club held last evening, Bayard Dierlov, George D. Hughes, S. Harrison Cheney and E. V. Andrews, all of this city, and E. C. Wilcox of Bainbridge were elected resident members of the club and Miss Blanche E. Rowe and Miss Julia E. Winsor of Laurens were elected associate members. This leaves but a few memberships before the club limit is reached.

SUBWAY UNDER TRACKS

OPPOSITE D. & H. STATION: R. PEDESTRIANS ONLY N. G. G. FIELD.

As Possible Solution of Problem of Gas House Clogging—Amendments to City Charter Proposed Giving Official Authority Over New Streets and Street Building Lines.

During the discussion of the vexatious problem of providing a suitable crossing of the D. & H. tracks and the mill race from the business section to the ball grounds and Newlawa park, at the meeting of the Board of Public Works last evening, Chairman Hoyt said that the D. & H. company engineers are considering plans for an underground foot passage opposite the station under the D. & H. tracks. His idea in mind that a foot bridge could be provided at that point over the mill race and thus obviate the use of the crossing at the gas works by pedestrians at least. This accomplished, Mr. Hoyt suggested that a small bridge capable of carrying light loads of not over three or five ton capacity leading to the gas works, replacing the bridge now condemned, could then be provided, with the street graded private way, and the danger to human life at the crossing would be reduced to a minimum.

It is the contention of Mr. Hoyt that the construction of a new bridge capable of carrying all traffic such as would be required if a permanent structure is located there would require a large outlay, with a capacity of at least 15 tons, and there would be a constant menace to life if pedestrians use the street during the summer months.

Mr. Hoyt said that no definite word has been given by the D. & H. company relative to its attitude on the subway for pedestrians only and that no decision has been reached as to whether the company is willing to do in the matter. It had been suggested by some of the company officials that an overhead bridge for pedestrians only be constructed. Mr. Hoyt said, but he expressed a fear that this would not remove the menace to life, as but few would use the bridge which would require stairs on both sides. The subject was left before the board for future consideration.

Engineer Potts Delayed

Clyde Potts, the consulting engineer who was expected to be present was delayed at Wilkes-Barre and was unable to reach Oneonta yesterday. He wired that he would arrive this morning after a consulting trip to the city. He will meet with the commissioners this afternoon to canvass the situation relative to the creeks flowing through the city. It is believed.

During the meeting a resolution was passed which requests the common council to cause to be prepared an amendment to the city charter which will make provision for the care of these creeks after the plan has been adopted and forward the same to the state legislature with the request that it be enacted. The exact nature of the amendment cannot be determined until after Mr. Potts has made his report and the proper course to pursue has been agreed upon. It is hoped that the matter can be settled today and the measure completed at an early date and forwarded to Albany.

Power to Regulate

City Engineer Gurney called the attention of the commissioner to the fact that many streets have been laid out improperly and with no consideration of the rights of the public in the past and that after houses had been erected thereon, the city is asked to accept them. He suggested the adoption of an amendment to the charter which would give the city authorities power to adopt measures which will prevent the laying out or opening of any street within the city limits until the plans for the same have been submitted to the city engineer and the board of public works and been approved by them.

It was further suggested that for the future of the city power be conferred upon city authorities to establish building lines upon all streets of the city, limiting the front walls of all buildings to be afterward erected to a certain distance from the street line.

After the subjects presented had been discussed a resolution was passed requesting the common council to submit to the legislature an amendment to the city charter embracing these suggestions and request its passage by that body. The resolution will be presented to the common council at an early meeting.

Bids for Material Opened

Bids which had been previously asked for were submitted for material such as cement, crushed stone, paving brick, oil for street cleaning, asphalt lining for street construction by L. P. Butts, Briggs Lumber company, Standard Oil company of New York city and United States Asphalt paving company and the Barber asphalt company.

owing to the inability of the commission to determine relative to the bids until they have been carefully compared by the city engineer, action on them was deferred until a later meeting, at which Engineer Gurney will report upon them. For the paving and Butts concerns submitted a price of $2.25 for Portland cement, C. O. B. Oneonta. The price of each for crushed stone was $1.50 per ton.

Delayed in Snow Drifts

During the meeting a letter was received from George J. Clute who was only member absent, saying that he was delayed in snow drifts and was unable to reach the meeting at a latest possible hour. He was, however, unable to reach the city before the meeting adjourned.

ANNUAL MEETING FRIDAY

Chamber of Commerce Will Meet
House of Election of Directors at Meeting in Municipal Hall Friday
Night—Address by Bradley Fuller
of Delmarva's League Co-operative
Association Will be a Feature.

Oneonta Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual meeting on Friday evening of this week in Municipal hall, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting assumes added importance because, in addition to the brief reports on the past year's activities by President Owen C. Becker, Treasurer Ralph W. Henderson, and Secretary Everett Hicks, the members present will be asked to elect down their suggestions for Chamber of Commerce activities in 1922, from which the new program of work will be drafted to carry on the organization's efforts along definite lines.

As a feature at the meeting, Bradley Fuller, esp. of Union, attorney for the Delmarva's League Co-operative Association, has been secured to give an address on the League's pooling plan, in order to acquaint Oneontans with the aims of this co-operative scheme and the workings of the organization. This talk was listed on the program at the specific request of officers of the Otsego County Farm Bureau and Improvement Association, who feel that the citizens of this city should become more familiar with the plan which has enlisted support from a large number of farmers of the county.

Announcement of the result of the final election of seven directors to the Chamber's board will be made at the meeting by Chairman Earl A. Smith of the Election Committee. Although the polls close Thursday evening, the names of the nominees elected will not be made known until the annual meeting, and members of the committee will all be pledged to secrecy after the certified count of the ballots has been completed.

More than 100 ballots in the final election of the Chamber of Commerce were received yesterday, indicating that with the votes which will probably be cast the next three days, the number of members who will participate in this election will be the largest in the organization's history. The 11 candidates for the directorate nominated by the primary election are:

FUNERALS

Mrs. Orestia Peet.

A private prayer service for the late Mrs. Orestia Peet was held at the home of her son, Carl Peet, 8 Huntington avenue, at 1 p. m. yesterday and was followed by services at the First Baptist church at 1:30. Rev. Dr. E. J. Farley officiated, passing a rare tribute to the character of the deceased and expressing the sympathy for the bereaved family that is felt by so many. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, including representative delegations from Bereavement and Autumn lodges. The flowers were abundant and beautiful and included pieces from the Royal Order of Moose, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Preservation lodge and Autumn lodge. Following the church services Autumn lodge gave their impressive burial service.

Interment was at the Cook cemetery at West Oneonta. The bereaved being her five sons, Edwin, Lester, Harry, George and Urdi, and her son-in-law, Fred Thorne, of Binghamton.

Thought 3 Little Children Needed Mother's Care

"My stomach suffering was so severe that I could not have lasted much longer. I did not care so much for myself but did not want to leave my three little children who needed mother's love and care. A cousin in California wrote me about Mother's Wonderful Remedy and I took a course of it. I have since been entirely well. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the entrance from the stomach, liver and intestinal tracts, including the appendix. One dose will convince or money refunded."

MAN KILLED AT SIDNEY

Charles Mitchell, of Binghamton, truck laborer, Meets Instant Death When Struck by Train Last Evening.

(Special to the Star.)

Sidney, Feb. 6.—Charles Mitchell, 25 years of age, whose home is in Binghamton but who has been employed on the bridge gang here, was instantly killed at 9:20 this evening when he was struck by a fast north-bound freight as he was walking up the D. & H. tracks near the Union station. The body was taken to the undertaking parlors of Carr and Hare to await the action of the relatives of the unfortunate man.

It is thought that Mitchell became confused when he saw the train approaching, stepping off the track and then back on again directly in the path of the unbraking locomotive. The engineer made valiant efforts to stop the train, while blowing the whistle vigorously, but in vain. The body was not identified until the arrival of the foreman of the gang with which Mitchell was working on the D. & H. bridge near here. The man was unmarried.

Visitation by the Grand Master's Representative.

A large gathering of Masons greeted the district deputy grand master, Fred H. Lamoreaux, in Masonic hall last evening on the occasion of his official visit to Oneonta lodge. The grand officer gave an address of great interest to the fraternity and was listened to with the closest attention. The first degree was conferred by the officers of the lodge, the work being aided by the grand master. A good number of visitors were among the gathering. Prior to the meeting an appetizing dinner was served in the banquet hall by the ladies of the Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Bedford L. Doyle and daughter, Carolyn, of 10 Brook street, left yesterday afternoon for Cobleskill, where they were called by tidings of the serious illness of Mrs. Doyle's youngest daughter, Mrs. Helen Mickle, owing to her advanced age of 86 years the condition of Mrs. Mickle is considered critical.

Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Caughy departed last evening for Pittsburgh, Pa., to attend the New World Movement convention of the United Presbyterian Church of North America. They go as delegates from the Oneonta congregation. While in Pittsburgh they will be entertained at Mr. Caughy's parental home.

Woodmen of the World Hold Dinner.

Sixty-five members of Rose camp, No. 221, Woodmen of the World, its women's auxiliary, Walnut Grove, and invited guests, held a very enjoyable dinner and got-together in the Call Freeman's rooms at the Municipal building last evening. The meeting was held to create interest in the order and to inaugurate a membership drive and was addressed by J. E. Long of New York city, state manager of the order, and Edgar O. Rose of Binghamton, district manager. Following the dinner and addresses games, dancing and music were enjoyed. Much interest was shown by the members and a most enjoyable time experienced by all.

Basketball at Schenectady.

There will be a basketball game at Schenectady Friday evening. The boys' and girls' teams of the high school will oppose the boys' and girls' teams of the Schenectady high school. The boys' game is expected to be one of the fastest games on the Schenectady high school schedule. When these teams met some time ago the score at the end of the second half was 17 to 17. After three extra four-minute periods the score was still tied and "quits" was called.

Tastes vary in many things, but when it comes to coffee, most people agree that Otego coffee is surpassingly good. Put in on the list for the grocery today.

HONORED SCHENEVUS MAN

Leslie R. French Relieved by Entire Community—A Prominent Mason and Man of High Ideals.

Leslie R. French, a prominent and highly respected citizen of Schenectady, died Sunday noon, February 6, at the home of his son, Harry G. French, after a prolonged illness of nearly a year's duration, following a stroke of paralysis last March.

Leslie R. French was a native of the town of Decatur, this county, where he was born on September 18, 1847, a son of the late Dr. James Thomas and Calverna (Treat) French. On February 2, 1868, at Warnerville, Schenectady county, he was married to Anna Groff. Directly after their marriage they removed to Worcester and took up their residence. For more than 40 years they lived on Elk Creek, Westford and Schenectady. Since the death of Mrs. French, which occurred two years ago last July, the deceased has lived with his son at whose home he died.

Mr. French was a member of Schenectady Valley lodge, No. 592, F. & A. M., and also a past master of the lodge. He was an enthusiastic Mason and seldom missed a communication so long as his health permitted him to attend.

Leslie R. French had been honored on many occasions by his townspeople, having served the town of Maryland on the Board of Supervisors on two different occasions, and for several years was justice of the peace, both of which offices he very acceptably filled.

Few men go to their eternal rest who have performed their part in life with more honor to themselves than did our honored and lamented citizen, Leslie R. French.

Righteous justice was a part of this man's nature. He was emphatically opposed to all inherent injustice and wrong. He wanted the right, the true, the just to prevail, and he always lifted up his voice in defense of the right and in opposition to the wrong. His strict integrity, his truthfulness, his manifest fairness at all times won for him the confidence of his business associates and all with whom he came in contact. His perfect reliability in all things was never questioned. Leslie R. French was a model man—one of nature's noblemen, who leaves a life's history untarnished and a memory of noble deeds and good fellowship which will be cherished by the surviving members of his family and hundreds of warm personal friends who will deeply mourn his demise.

The funeral will be held from his late home on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and will be in charge of the Masonic fraternity. Rev. T. F. Hall of Cooperstown, a personal friend of the family, will be the officiating clergyman, assisted by Rev. W. D. Duran and Rev. E. E. Feasler. The remains will be placed in the receiving vault in the Schenectady cemetery and later laid at rest in the family plot nearby.

The surviving members of the family are: One son, Harry G. French, Schenectady; and one daughter, Mrs. Theodore Knapp, Elk Creek; and four grandchildren, Russell and Lewis French, Schenectady; Fred Knapp, Elk Creek; and Mrs. Ernest Slauson, Worcester.

Mrs. Norton Laid to Rest

A large delegation of former North Franklin neighbors of the deceased, Mrs. Norton, laid to rest, relatives and friends from this city, were present at the funeral yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Lewis A. Norton, held at the home of her brother, Fred J. Parker, 1 Hudson street. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. B. M. Johns, pastor of the First Methodist church, who gave a sympathetic talk that was much appreciated by the bereaved relatives.

After the services at the house, the body was placed in the vault at the Plains cemetery, and will be buried later in the North Franklin cemetery. The bearers were Sherman Bushnell, Wallace McMorris, James Barton and Alva DeGroot. There was a beautiful display of flowers, including a piece from D. & H. locomotive shop 7.

Relatives from out of the city present at the funeral were the Misses Lena and Laura Norton of Canisteo, Ernest Norton of North Franklin and Margaret Dutcher of Walton.

Death at Westville.

Whitney Bates, a life-long, respected resident of Westville, died Friday morning at his home in this town. Death was caused by a stroke of apoplexy, which a short time before he suffered. The funeral services were held Monday at his late home, with burial in the village cemetery.

The deceased, who was 79 years of age, was a son of the late Thomas L. and Bersey (Gowell) Bates. He is survived by two brothers, Aaron Bates of Maryland township and Irving Bates of Westville. His wife died about one year ago.

Funeral of Mrs. Robert J. Orr.

The interment of Mrs. Robert J. Orr will take place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at West Davenport, instead of yesterday as erroneously stated in The Star of yesterday. There will be no service and the burial will be strictly private.

Births.

Born at the Foote Maternity hospital, February 6, to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hill of Davenport, a baby girl weighing nine pounds, who has been named Evelyn Ida.

ARE YOU A TARGET FOR INFLUENZA?

Be Prepared — Strengthen and Build Up Your Blood With Gude's Pepto-Mangan

If you are not feeling your best—if you have that "mange-tired" feeling, be careful of the influenza. It is this blood, anemic people that develop strikes first. It is the first corpuscles of the blood that fight disease and save you from sickness.

Fortify your blood—build it up with the pleasant taste, Pepto-Mangan. And should you be laid up recovering from influenza, Pepto-Mangan will build you up. Pepto-Mangan is wholly and heartily endorsed by physicians. In liquid or tablet form. No difference in beneficial properties.

Sold at any drug store, but be sure you get Gude's Pepto-Mangan. Ask for it by the name and be sure the full name is on the package.

DEATH OF MRS. NORMAN GETMAN

Venerable Resident of Richfield Springs Dies Monday Noon.

Margaret Harter, wife of the late Dr. Norman Getman of Richfield Springs, died at noon on Monday at her home in that village. Though she had not been in good health for several years, her more rapid decline dated from a shock which she suffered about five weeks ago. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at her late home, and burial will be beside her husband in the family plot in the Lakeview cemetery.

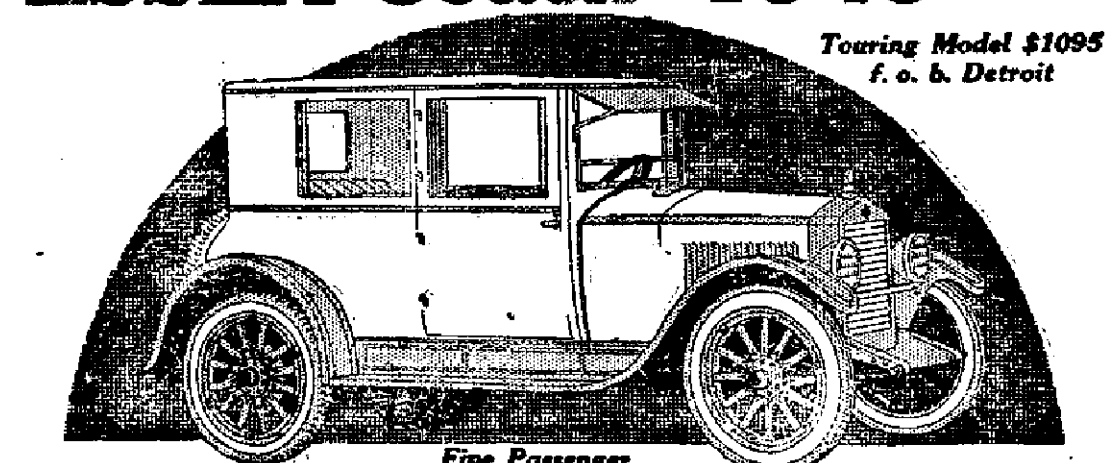

Mrs. Getman, who was 87 years of age, was descended from one of the old families of the Palatinate in the Mohawk valley. She was married to Dr. Getman about 55 years ago, and practically all her life from that time was spent in Richfield Springs, where her husband was a leading physician and business man. She was a devoted and early life of the Presbyterian church and was a most estimable woman, deeply beloved by all who knew her. By many in Oneonta, where in other years she was a frequent visitor with her two sons, Dr. A. D. Getman and H. H. Getman, both now deceased, she will be pleasantly remembered.

The immediate surviving members of her family are two daughters-in-law, Mrs. A. D. Getman of this city, and Mrs. H. H. Getman of Richfield; five grandsons, Dr. Norman Getman, Herbert C. Getman and Damon L. Getman of Oneonta, Dr. Albert A. Getman of Syracuse and Prof. H. G. Getman of Stamford; and one great-grandchild. She leaves also one brother, William Harter and a sister, Mrs. Joseph Melg, both of Mohawk.

AUTO BOOM FOR THE FARMS

What the Car Has Done in Making Life Easier and Better in the Country and Made It a Necessity.

Did you ever hear a farmer argue as to whether an automobile is a luxury or a necessity? If so, he was short, concise and positive in his assertion that from his point of view the auto is a necessity on the modern farm. Without going into details it can be said that the automobile has given the American farmer transportation in a sense that his father did not know. It has made country life better, more enjoyable, more satisfying. It is one of the big agricultural developments of the past decade.

The automobile serves in so many different ways. It is a time saver. A broken piece of machinery in the rush season, the auto goes to town and back in an hour, where formerly it took the best part of a day. Working on the back end of the farm, the auto takes you down there in about 10 minutes. Changing help with the neighbor, a 15 minute drive and you are five miles from home. Some eggs to deliver at the store and a few groceries to bring home, it takes less than an hour to go to town and back, where formerly it used to be such an undertaking. These are only a few examples. It is literally impossible to measure the economic advantages of the automobile. It solves the farmer's business way because it is faster than the old way.

It has enlarged the farmer's business radius. We can well remember when the farmer's business radius was limited to eight or 10 miles with an occasional trip to town 20 miles away. Little was known of what was going on outside of the township in a business way. With the automobile it is nothing unusual to find the farmer 100 miles away from home on business and he will sleep in his own bed at night, too. The auto has increased the farmer's business radius by at least five times and today he goes 100 miles and back with greater ease than he used to make the 20-mile trip. The farmer knows more men in a business way, has wider markets to buy and sell on. In short the auto has made him a better business man. He has more business opportunities.

What a blessing the automobile has been to the farmer's family. In many respects it has made social life possible. This is well illustrated by an incident which happened not long ago. A young lady who was raised on a neighboring farm was to be honored in a city some 40 miles away. Invitations were sent to her old friends. Not so many years ago it would have been practically impossible for us to have enjoyed this occasion but this time the chaperone was done in the morning as usual. There was no hurry. Every one could go. It was only a little over two hours' drive by auto. The return was made in the afternoon in plenty of time to do the evening chores and get supper. Here was a case where several families went 40 miles and return in one day on a social mission. This pleasure was made possible by the automobile. Instances of this kind could be multiplied. The auto has made for an enlarged and a fuller social life in the country. It has made possible that which reformers have preached but never accomplished.

When the forces which have made for a better country life are considered, the automobile will stand near the front of the list and it is not hard to know why it was that made the automobile on the farm a reality to be enjoyed by all just steps and farmer you happen to meet and ask him.

WEST END EXPANDING

M. E. Riley to Erect Modern Brick Building Block Also Purchases 12 Building Lots — Other News Notes of Interest.

M. E. Riley, who recently manifested his interest in the development of West End by purchasing 12 building lots and converting it into a modern office building, has decided to further expand his real estate interests.

In the spring, he will break ground for a large brick business block, to be located next to the old hotel property. The building will be of modern fire-proof construction and will accommodate two business places. This structure will be two stories in height. When the building has been completed, it will be rented. It is reported that one or two West End business men have already negotiated for occupancy of the stores.

Mr. Riley has purchased a tract of land of Mrs. Peter VanWoert, adjoining her residence at the Junction. The plot will accommodate 12 building lots, and no doubt Mr. Riley plans to inaugurate a real estate "boom" in the district next spring, although he has not yet announced his plans.

The lots face Chestnut street on the road to West Ontario.

Remodelling of the old hotel property to accommodate the general offices of the Southern New York railway has been completed, and the offices probably will be moved from Cooperstown to this city this week.

Elm Park Church Notes.

The Legal Workers will hold a business meeting Wednesday evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, with Mrs. O. A. Hubbell, Lower Chestnut street. The same church will meet Thursday afternoon in the church parlors to discuss a large attendance is urged.

The Ladies Aid society will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Elsie Clinton on Madison avenue.

To Open Store Next Week.

E. E. Rhodes of Franklin, who last month purchased the business building of E. B. St. John on Lower Chestnut street, is busy redecorating the interior and will open next week with a fresh stock of groceries, clothing, and other lines of merchandise. For the present, Mr. St. John is occupying the rear of the store for his electrical business.

Mr. Rhodes already conducts general stores at Franklin and Bainbridge and has met with good success. He will continue his residence in Franklin but will devote considerable time to the Ontario store.

Items of Interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merens have moved from Main street to a flat at 220 1/2 Chestnut street.

The Epworth league of the Plains Methodist church will hold a business meeting this evening at 8 o'clock with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wilson, 114 Plains.

Walter Woodworth of Schenectady is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Woodworth, 210 Chestnut street.

Stephen Leonard is confined to his home at 208 Chestnut street by a severe attack of cold.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Edmunds of 14 River street are also expecting the birth, which seems certain to result for a while, but Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds, with the assistance of Dr. N. W. Graham are doing their best to make it as easy as possible.

Charles Gray and daughter, Mrs. John, of 204 Chestnut street, spent the week-end in Albany.

The family friends of Mrs. Sanford Church will regret to learn that she is seriously ill at the family home on Lower Chestnut street. Her son, David, of Stamford, Conn., has arrived to be with her.

Mrs. Robert E. Austin of Edinboro spent the week-end with West End friends.

Charles Hutchinson, who has been seriously ill at Birmingham, was able to spend the week-end at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Howard, 12 Kearney street, but returned to Birmingham yesterday for further treatment.

A PLEA FOR EDUCATION

Inspiring Address by Chancellor Bradford of the University of Oklahoma.

Lectures do not always draw well in Ontario, but this was not the case last evening, when former Chancellor Bradford of the University of Oklahoma appeared on the platform at the Ontario High school, delivering as had been announced, the lecture which was the fifth of the series of entertainments in the Normal and High school course for the season of 1921-22. Instead, there was a large attendance, the auditorium being well filled with a characteristic Ontario audience in which were many young men and women of the school as well as a goodly number of older folk. The audience, moreover, was both attentive and enthusiastic, than which no higher tribute could be paid.

The speaker, who was enthusiastically introduced by Dr. B. M. Johns of the First Methodist Episcopal church, and who gave as title of his address, "This Way I," unquestionably was a man from the west with a message. In his early days, the speaker said, there was on the first page of his geography a picture of the world borne upon the shoulders of one named Atlas. He did not at first know what it meant, though afterwards he learned; and in these late days he has learned the further fact that America is Atlas, and that upon his shoulders is laid the burden of the world. "Will America realize that her hour has come? Will America in sporting parlance know that she is at the bat, and will she strike out or hit?"

The world of the present day, he said, is in chaos, but there is hope in God, who long kept America hidden, until in the fulness of time he sent Columbus on the voyage of discovery, and a land was revealed in which all races are destined to be incorporated in the making of matchless man. America now has her chance, and whether she takes it or leaves it depends on the attitude of our young men and women.

Continuing, the speaker emphasized the wonderful opportunities which by our schools are provided, and asserted that the price of education in our land is more the desire for it. Put the desire in the heart, and the desire will pay the bill. There was never a day in which it was so easy to succeed as now, and the doors of opportunity now swing wider than ever before. The school, the home and the church are a team which together draw big loads.

In conclusion, Chancellor Bradford made a plea for those who are to make America the pride of the world—a land of boys and girls who go to college and are not sent, and where educated minds, noble hearts and Christian spirits—and not money—will solve the problems of the world. We need no new schemes from Wall street, but visions from God; and the educated young man and woman will go forward nobly and joyfully to meet the problems of the hour. The big heart of America is right. Fit yourselves, then, for work, for the hope of the world is in America, and in America is the way out.

The last number in the course will be given by Theo. Karle and his company, on Wednesday evening, April 19.

Folks are being lead out of the wilderness of misunderstanding every day. Klipnoekie highgrade coffee is the leader.

FIRE CAUSES $30,000 LOSS

Buildings of Globe Silo Company at Sidney Destroyed by Fire Last Evening—Heavy Inventory of Unshipped Goods for Spring Delivery Swept Away.

(Special to The Star.) Sidney, Feb. 6. — Fire which broke out at 6:20 this evening completely destroyed all of the buildings, except the office, of the Globe Silo company here, costing a loss conservatively estimated at $30,000. It is understood that insurance will cover about 50% of the loss.

The fire started presumably from a hot box on a planer which had been running at top speed all day and added by a strong wind soon reduced the group of wooden buildings to a smoldering heap of ashes. Good work on the part of the fire department and the Sidney detachment of State Troopers saved the office building and a small amount of outgoing lumber.

The plant was getting ready for spring deliveries and there was a large amount of work in process in the buildings and a considerable quantity of lumber stacked in the yards, but a small part of which was saved. The buildings and contents were inventoried at about $40,000.

The Globe Silo company had been established nine years and had a considerable patronage. F. J. Fawcett, president, C. C. Moore, vice president, and J. M. Hopkins, treasurer, are residents of Unadilla while the secretary and manager, J. M. Moore, lives in Sidney. Manager Moore was enroute to Rochester last evening and it was impossible to notify him of the fire. The plant employed a number of hands.

NEW SCHOOL DISCUSSED

Sixth Ward Civic League Holds Interesting Meeting at Oliver Street School Last Evening.

A lively discussion of the new ward school proposed for the sixth ward was an interesting feature of the largely attended meeting of the Sixth Ward Civic League held at the Oliver street school last evening. There was no doubt expressed that a school is needed in that section of the city, the discussion involving the question of the type of building and the most advantageous location.

A committee was appointed to canvass the ward with a view to having a representative attendance at a special meeting contemplated for Wednesday evening, February 15, at which the proposition will be discussed in more detail. Last night's meeting was presided over by Henri Gassler, president of the league and Mrs. Emma Holmback, newly elected secretary, performed her duties for the first time.
